p. 130 At an Inferior Court began and held at Jacksonboro in and for the County of Scriven for Ordinary purposes this 3rd April 1837...

The ac/ current rendered by James Lee guardian of Caroline Anderson, Frances Anderson & Hezekiah Anderson minors examined and approved of and ordered to be recorded._

--- NOTES ---

James Lee sold Hezekiah's land at public auction on 28 April 1834 to highest bidder Charles H. McCall, 125 acres in the 36th District, the lower half of a 250-acre tract originally granted to Joseph Jackson and bounded on the NE by the Savannah River, SE and SW by John Reeves, SE by John Thompson and NW by other half of Jackson survey (Deed Book M: 2). Alley Anderson secured a headright grant of 182.5 acres in Screven, surveyed in December 1832, granted in September 1834 and sold by Alley in October 1838 (Deed Book M: 295).

A January 1839 return by James Lee on his guardianship of Hezekiah's daughter Caroline reflects "cash received from the estate of James Anderson" (Returns on estates 1843-1854, image 134, recorded in February 1845).

According to a message board post by Bob Peavy on 17 May 1999 which is no longer available (screen capture taken at the time is attached), the heirs of Hezekiah Anderson were listed as heirs of James Anderson in the final settlement of his estate (record not yet found). Mr. Peavy surmises that since the other heirs were of a similar age to James, they were likely brothers (Hezekiah, Joseph and Robert) or brothers-in-law (Joseph Harrison, William T. Moore). I believe these Andersons may have been children of Ignatius Anderson, who registered in Screven County for the 1807 land lottery and drew Lot 251 in District 13, Wilkinson County (Paul K. Graham, 1807 Georgia Land Lottery Fortunate Drawers and Grantees, p. 316). Unfortunately, deeds survive only from 1854 due to a series of fires in Wilkinson so the disposition of this land is so far unknown.

In the Screven Co GA Census of 1830, James ANDERSON is listed as living alone (his estate sales indicate that he may have been predominantly a cattle farmer). Hezekiah ANDERSON b 1775-1794 d c Mar 1826 (testate) predeceased James ANDERSON b 1780-1790 d Jul-Nov 1830 (intestate). James ANDERSON's will was refused in Dec 1830, so we don't get to see it. In Jan 1831, Hezekiah's son-in-law, James LEE, became administrator of James ANDERSON's estate (through at least 1838), and among those acting as security for his administration was Joseph ANDERSON. Among the purchasers at the estate sale in Feb 1831 were Joseph ANDERSON and Wm. T. MOORE. In the settlement of James ANDERSON's estate in Nov 1832, his heirs are listed as:

Robert ANDERSON (I have no other information about this individual),
Joseph [B.] ANDERSON (1830 Census: b 1780-1790, evidently with a wife or daughter b 1800-1810 and a son b 1815-1820),
Joseph HARRISON (I need to find out more about an individual of this name in Effingham Co GA), William T. MOORE (1840 Census: b 1780-1790, evidently with a wife b 1780-1790), and the heirs of Hezekiah ANDERSON (we have lists of Hezekiah's heirs in Jul & Sep 1833 when his estate was divided),

Since James ANDERSON does not seem to be married (in 1820) or have descendants (his administrator was his nephew-in-law), and since the known ages of the listed individuals is about the same as that of James ANDERSON, I am assuming that the heirs were his brothers and brothers-in-law. Of the three Screven Co GA ?brothers, Joseph B. ANDERSON first appears in Screven Co GA records (buying land in the early 1800s).

Hezekiah ANDERSON b 1775-1794 NC or VA d c Mar 1826 m c 1808 Alley _____ b 1791-1792 GA or SC d > 1870
